PETITION FOR DAMAGES

NOW INTO COURT, through undersigned counsel, comes Plaintiffs Darla Keys, Jill Cheramie on behalf of Korte Cheramie, and Daniel Waddoups who petition this Court for damages and respectfully allege as follows:

1.

At the time of the accident, Plaintiff Korte Cheramie was a person of the full age of majority and a Louisiana resident domiciled in Orleans Parish, Louisiana. Plaintiff Korte Cheramie subsequently died, and is represented herein by his next of kin Jill Cheramie, his mother and, on information and belief, the Executrix of the Succession of Korte Cheramie.

Plaintiff Jill Cheramie is a person of the full age of majority and a Louisiana resident, domiciled in Orleans Parish, Louisiana.

Plaintiff Daniel Waddoups is a person of the full age of majority and a Texas resident domiciled in Tarrant County.

Made Defendant herein is U.S. Xpress, Inc., a foreign corporation domiciled in the state of Nevada with a registered office in the Parish of East Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

Made Defendant herein is John Doe, a person of the full age of majority who was an employed driver of Defendant U.S. Xpress, Inc. His domicile is unknown at this time.

7.

The accident made subject of this Petition occurred in Gregg County, Texas.

Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to La. C.C.P. art. 42 because Defendant is a foreign corporation with a registered office in Baton Rouge.

9.

On April 26, 2016, Plaintiff Daniel Waddoups was driving his motor vehicle east on Interstate 20 in Gregg County, Texas.

10.

Plaintiff Korte Cheramie was driving a motor vehicle, along with Darla Keys as passenger directly behind Mr. Waddoups.

11.

Defendant John Doe was driving an eighteen-wheeler owned by Defendant U.S. Xpress directly behind Plaintiffs Keys and Cheramie.

12.

Both Mr. Waddoups and Mr. Cheramie slowed their vehicles as traffic stopped due to an accident. John Doe failed to slow down and struck Mr. Cheramie's vehicle from behind pushing him into the back of Mr. Waddoups vehicle.

Plaintiffs pulled their vehicles to the right shoulder of the road, and John Doe told Mr. Cheramie and Ms. Keys that he would wait for them at the next exit to exchange information.

14.

John Doe failed to arrive at the next exit.

15.

The above described accident was caused solely by the negligence of John Doe—U.S. Xpress' employee who was acting within the course and scope of employment—which is more particularly described as follows:

- a. Failing to maintain proper lookout;
- b. Failing to see what should have been seen;
- c. Failing to yield;
- d. Careless operation of a motor vehicle; and
- e. Other acts of negligence.

As a result of the impact, Plaintiff Keys suffered multiple and serious injuries affecting her neck, shoulder, back and right knee. She was diagnosed with aggravation of chronic back pain.

17.

As a result of the impact, Plaintiff Cheramie suffered radiating pain. He was diagnosed with soft tissue injuries, injuries to the spinal discs and muscle spasms. Ultimately, Cheramie died.

As a result of the impact, Plaintiff Waddoups suffered damage to his vehicle.

19.

Plaintiffs Keys and Cheramie are entitled to recover damages their physical pain and suffering, mental pain and suffering, medical expenses, past, present, and future, and permanent injury.

20.

Plaintiffs Keys and Cheramie's damages are each in excess of $50,000.00 exclusive of cost and interest.

21.

Plaintiff Waddoups is entitled to recover damages to his vehicle, all costs of repair, and rental car reimbursement while his vehicle is being repaired.

22.

At all relevant times, U.S. Xpress maintained a policy of self-insurance under which the negligent acts of their employee, John Doe, are covered.

At all relevant times, Allstate Fire and Casualty Insurance Company issued a valid and outstanding policy of underinsured motorist protection in favor of Plaintiffs Darla Keys and Korte Cheramie under which said policy Allstate Fire and Casualty Insurance Company has agreed to pay for any and all claims for damages by the negligence of an underinsured motorist as a result of a motor vehicle accident. Accordingly, Plaintiffs have a right of direct action against Allstate Fire and Casualty Insurance Company as their underinsured motorist carrier.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray that Defendants be duly cited and served with a copy of the Petition and that after due proceedings are had there be judgment rendered herein in favor of Plaintiffs Darla Keys, Jill Cheramie on behalf of Korte Cheramie, and Daniel Waddoups, and against Defendants U.S. Xpress, Inc. and John Doe in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate them for their damages together with legal interest thereon from the date of judicial demand until paid, for all costs of this suit, for penalties and attorney's fees provided by La. R.S. §§ 22:1892, 22:1973 and for all other general and equitable relief deemed appropriate by this Court. Plaintiffs request a jury trial on all issues triable by jury.

Dated: January 11, 2017

Respectfully submitted:

BY CLERK OF COURT

NOW INTO COURT, through undersigned counsel, comes Plaintiffs Darla Keys, Jill Cheramie on behalf of Korte Cheramie, and Daniel Waddoups who petition this Court for damages and respectfully allege as follows:

1.

Plaintiff Darla Keys is a person of the full age of majority and a Louisiana resident domiciled in Orleans Parish, Louisiana.

2.

At the time of the accident, Plaintiff Korte Cheramie was a person of the full age of majority and a Louisiana resident domiciled in Orleans Parish, Louisiana. Plaintiff Korte Cheramie subsequently died, and is represented herein by his next of kin Jill Cheramie, his mother and, on information and belief, the Executrix of the Succession of Korte Cheramie.

3.

Plaintiff Jill Cheramie is a person of the full age of majority and a Louisiana resident, domiciled in Orleans Parish, Louisiana.

4.

Plaintiff Daniel Waddoups is a person of the full age of majority and a Texas resident domiciled in Tarrant County.

5.

Made Defendant herein is U.S. Xpress, Inc., a foreign corporation domiciled in the state of Nevada with a registered office in the Parish of East Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

6.

Made Defendant herein is John Doe, a person of the full age of majority who was an employed driver of Defendant U.S. Xpress, Inc. His domicile is unknown at this time.

7.

The accident made subject of this Petition occurred in Gregg County, Texas.

8.

Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to La. C.C.P. art. 42 because Defendant is a foreign corporation with a registered office in Baton Rouge.

9.

On April 26, 2016, Plaintiff Daniel Waddoups was driving his motor vehicle east on Interstate 20 in Gregg County, Texas.

10.

Plaintiff Korte Cheramie was driving a motor vehicle, along with Darla Keys as passenger directly behind Mr. Waddoups.

11.

Defendant John Doe was driving an eighteen-wheeler owned by Defendant U.S. Xpress directly behind Plaintiffs Keys and Cheramie.

12.

Both Mr. Waddoups and Mr. Cheramie slowed their vehicles as traffic stopped due to an accident. John Doe failed to slow down and struck Mr. Cheramie's vehicle from behind pushing him into the back of Mr. Waddoups vehicle.

13.

Plaintiffs pulled their vehicles to the right shoulder of the road, and John Doe told Mr. Cheramie and Ms. Keys that he would wait for them at the next exit to exchange information.

14.

John Doe failed to arrive at the next exit.

15.

The above described accident was caused solely by the negligence of John Doe—U.S. Xpress' employee who was acting within the course and scope of employment—which is more particularly described as follows:

- a. Failing to maintain proper lookout;
- b. Failing to see what should have been seen;
- c. Failing to yield;
- d. Careless operation of a motor vehicle; and
- e. Other acts of negligence.

16.

As a result of the impact, Plaintiff Keys suffered multiple and serious injuries affecting her neck, shoulder, back and right knee. She was diagnosed with aggravation of chronic back pain.

17.

As a result of the impact, Plaintiff Cheramie suffered radiating pain. He was diagnosed with soft tissue injuries, injuries to the spinal discs and muscle spasms. Ultimately, Cheramie died.

18.

As a result of the impact, Plaintiff Waddoups suffered damage to his vehicle.

19.

Plaintiffs Keys and Cheramie are entitled to recover damages their physical pain and suffering, mental pain and suffering, medical expenses, past, present, and future, and permanent injury.

20.

Plaintiffs Keys and Cheramie's damages are each in excess of $50,000.00 exclusive of cost and interest.

21.

Plaintiff Waddoups is entitled to recover damages to his vehicle, all costs of repair, and rental car reimbursement while his vehicle is being repaired.

At all relevant times, U.S. Xpress maintained a policy of self-insurance under which the negligent acts of their employee, John Doe, are covered.

At all relevant times, Allstate Fire and Casualty Insurance Company issued a valid and outstanding policy of underinsured motorist protection in favor of Plaintiffs Darla Keys and Korte Cheramie under which said policy Allstate Fire and Casualty Insurance Company has agreed to pay for any and all claims for damages by the negligence of an underinsured motorist as a result of a motor vehicle accident. Accordingly, Plaintiffs have a right of direct action against Allstate Fire and Casualty Insurance Company as their underinsured motorist carrier.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray that Defendants be duly cited and served with a copy of the Petition and that after due proceedings are had there be judgment rendered herein in favor of Plaintiffs Darla Keys, Jill Cheramie on behalf of Korte Cheramie, and Daniel Waddoups, and against Defendants U.S. Xpress, Inc. and John Doe in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate them for their damages together with legal interest thereon from the date of judicial demand until paid, for all costs of this suit, for penalties and attorney's fees provided by La. R.S. §§ 22:1892, 22:1973 and for all other general and equitable relief deemed appropriate by this Court. Plaintiffs request a jury trial on all issues triable by jury.

STATE OF LOUISIANA

NO. 657,399

DIVISION: "I / SECTION 24"

DARLA KEYS, JILL CHERAMIE AS MOTHER AND EXECUTRIX ON BEHALF OF KORTE CHERAMIE AND DANIEL WADDOUPS

versus

U.S. XPRESS, INC., JOHN DOE, AND
ALLSTATE FIRE AND CASUALTY INSURANCE COMPANY

FILED: _____ DEPUTY CLERK

ANSWER TO PETITION FOR DAMAGES AND JURY ORDER

NOW INTO COURT, through undersigned counsel, comes ALLSTATE FIRE AND CASUALTY INSURANCE COMPANY, (hereinafter referred to as "respondent") and, in response to the Petition for Damages filed by DARLA KEYS, JILL CHERAMIE AS MOTHER AND EXECUTRIX ON BEHALF OF KORTE CHERAMIE AND DANIEL WADDOUPS, pleads as follows:

Respondent denies each and every allegation contained in the Petition for Damages except such as may be hereinafter specifically admitted, as follows:

Paragraph 1 of the Petition for Damages does not require a response on the part of respondent; however, out of an abundance of caution a general denial is pled.

2.

As to Paragraph 2 of the Petition for Damages, respondent admits its name and status only. All remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 2 of the Petition for Damages are denied.

3.

As to Paragraph 3 of the Petition for Damages, respondent admits its name and status only. All remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 3 of the Petition for Damages are denied.

4.

As to Paragraph 4 of the Petition for Damages, respondent admits its name and status only. All remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 4 of the Petition for Damages are denied.

5.

Paragraph 5 of the Petition for Damages does not require a response on the part of respondent; however, out of an abundance of caution a general denial is pled.

6.

Paragraph 6 of the Petition for Damages does not require a response on the part of respondent; however, out of an abundance of caution a general denial is pled.

7.

The allegations contained in Paragraph 7 of the Petition for Damages are denied.

8.

Paragraph 8 of the Petition for Damages does not require a response on the part of respondent; however, out of an abundance of caution a general denial is pled.

9.

The allegations contained in Paragraph 9 of the Petition for Damages are denied for lack of sufficient information upon which to justify a belief.

10.

The allegations contained in Paragraph 10 of the Petition for Damages are denied.

11.

The allegations contained in Paragraph 11 of the Petition for Damages are denied.

12.

The allegations contained in Paragraph 12 of the Petition for Damages are denied.

13.

The allegations contained in Paragraph 13 of the Petition for Damages are denied.

14.

The allegations contained in Paragraph 14 of the Petition for Damages are denied.

15.

The allegations contained in Paragraph 15 of the Petition for Damages are denied.

16.

The allegations contained in Paragraph 16 of the Petition for Damages are denied.

17.

The allegations contained in Paragraph 17 of the Petition for Damages are denied.

18.

The allegations contained in Paragraph 18 of the Petition for Damages are denied.

19.

The allegations contained in Paragraph 19 of the Petition for Damages are denied.

20.

The allegations contained in Paragraph 20 of the Petition for Damages are denied.

21.

The allegations contained in Paragraph 21 of the Petition for Damages are denied.

22.

The allegations contained in Paragraph 22 of the Petition for Damages are denied for lack of sufficient information upon which to justify a belief.

23.

The allegations contained in Paragraph 23 of the Petition for Damages are denied as written. Respondent submits that prior to the date of the alleged subject accident, it issued a policy of automobile insurance in the name of Darla Keys, having issued such policy of insurance containing many conditions, provisions and exclusions limiting and defining the coverage afforded by the policy and respondent specifically pleads all of the terms and conditions of the policy. All remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 23 of the Petition for Damages are denied.

To the extent the prayer of the Petition for Damages requires an answer on the part of respondent, a general denial is pled.

AND NOW, further answering the allegations of the Petition for Damages, respondent pleads as follows:

24.

Respondent denies that plaintiffs' damages are equal or in excess of an amount properly triable before a jury; however, in the event that plaintiffs' causes of action exceed the jurisdictional threshold for a trial by jury, then respondent desires a jury trial on all issues herein.

25.

Respondent denies any liability whatsoever in the premise of the Petition for Damages.

26.

Respondent submits that the sole and/or proximate cause of the subject accident was the fault and/or negligence on the part of Darla Keys.

In the event, and only in the event, this court should conclude that respondent is liable as to any allegations contained in the Petition for Damages, which is denied, then in such event, respondent pleads the benefit of comparative fault, including but not limited to plaintiffs' comparative fault in the reduction to plaintiffs' claims for damages.

28.

Further pleading in the alternative, respondent shows that it is entitled to a credit or offset of any sums paid to plaintiffs by any person, firm or insurer liable to plaintiffs for all or any portion of plaintiffs' damages, if any.

29.

To the extent the evidence may so indicate and in order to preserve the affirmative defense, res specifically asserts the provisions of the Medicare Secondary Payer Act, 42 USC 1395, et seq., the Medicare, Medicaid and SCHIP Extension Act of 2007, 31 USCS 3711, et seq., 45 CFR 30, et seq., and 42 CFR 411, et seq. Specifically, respondent alleges that the failure of the plaintiff to provide official and definitive documentation from the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services regarding the amount of any Medicare lien (and/or lack thereof) and/or the amount of any required set-aside (and/or lack thereof), is an affirmative defense to any state law requirement to make an unconditional tender of any Uninsured or Underinsured Motorist Coverage and/or any Medical Payments Coverage.

30.

Further pleading in the alternative, respondent affirmatively pleads the failure of plaintiffs to mitigate their damages, if any.

31.

Respondent reserves the right to assert additional affirmative defenses as discovery progresses.

WHEREFORE, respondent, ALLSTATE FIRE AND CASUALTY INSURANCE COMPANY, prays that after all legal delays and due proceedings are had there be judgment herein in its favor rejecting and denying the demands of plaintiffs at plaintiffs' sole cost and for all other general and equitable relief necessary and proper in the premise.

Respectfully submitted,
